tle and Horse Growers' Association Will Be Considered by Members.

the association's headquarters here, to the Cowboys' reunion to be held at Las Vegas next month for the purpose of extending the membership of the association in Northern New Mexico.

The executive board is expected to appoint an advisory board to confer with the United States forest service.
The advisory board will be created to further co-operation between the forest service and the New Mexico association, looking toward the enforcement of forest service regulations and also the enforcement of regulations desired by the stockmen.

subsidiary to the New Mexico association, probably will be effected. The smaller organizations will take care of distinctively local problems.

MARY PICKFORD IN
LATEST SCREEN PLAY,
'THE FOUNDLING'

Quite inexhaustive, it appears, is the peculiar artistic faculty of Mary Pickford, the world's foremost motion picture star, for creating transcendent screen triumphs. In rapid and uninterrupted succession, this unsurpassed star of the Famous Players-Film company has provided a series of individually distinctive and collectively astonishing film successes. Following her triumphant appearances in "Madame Butterfly," this great star is now presented in another sterling characterization, as "The Foundling," the latest Famous Players production on the Paramount Program, now being exhibited at the Lyric theatre today and tomorrow.

Presenting a story of beautiful sentiments and tender appeal to the finest senses, "The Foundling" epitomizes in a strongly dramatic manner the sufferings of a girl cast out into the world by the hatred of her father, because her birth has caused the death of the wife he had loved and worshipped.

The father goes to Italy to forget the lost wife, committing Molly O. to a foundling asylum, where she is subjected to all sorts of indignities and personal hardships. She is finally given to a boarding house keeper who makes a drudge of her and ill-treats her in every conceivable manner.
When the penniless father returns to look for his child, another girl is substituted for Molly O. and the poor child continues to live in misery until her own kind efforts accidentally bring her in touch with her father.

TOULOUSE REMAINS A DAY FURTHER; HOPES TO SECURE MORE RECRUITS

On telephone order from General Herring to Captain Toulouse the local officer will remain over until tonight, leaving at 10:30 o'clock for Columbus. He hopes that a number of more men will respond to the call for recruits and go to the armory today and tonight.

"There isn't any further excuse for men who have been holding back for the want of action, to further refuse to serve their country," said Captain Toulouse last night. "Many men have told me that if a general call was made by the president for all the national guards, they then would respond. It is time for these men to make good their promise. I haven't any hesitancy in saying that it is a shame and a disgrace that young men of Albuquerque have been holding back."

MEDINA REWARD
IS DIVIDED THREE
WAYS BY COURT

Judge Reynolds Gives Greater Part to Moises Saavedra, First Man to Whom Convicted Man Admitted Guilt.

Judge H. F. Reynolds, of the district court, yesterday decided who were entitled to the reward offered for the capture of the murderer of Jose N. Chavez, owner of a pool hall at San Jose. The court split the reward three ways, giving $150 to Moises Saavedra, $75 to Claude Hutto and $75 to Justice Pedro Tartaglia, of the San Jose precinct.

Saavedra, who gets the greater part of the reward, was the first man to whom Jose Medina, now under sentence to be hanged, admitted his guilt.
Saavedra was one of the men employed by the district attorney's office to examine Medina under the direction of the police. Saavedra was putting Medina through the examination when he confessed.

Hutto, stenographer for the grand jury, uncovered some evidence against Medina when the jurors went to the home of Angel Rodriguez, where Medina boarded.

The reward, which the court divid-

WILLIAM S. HART
IN 'THE ARYAN,' NOW
AT PASTIME THEATER

An unusual theme is developed with rare power in "The Aryan." William S. Hart's new Triangle-line play, soon to be released. It is the power of fearlessness and faith to overcome evil.

The opposing characteristics are personified in a girl and a man.
The man, embittered by a misplaced affection, is the embodiment of hate for all mankind—and womankind—and of an insatiable lust for revenge.
That is Hart's part.

The girl, with an unsullied love in her heart for everyone, goes to the man believing that because he is of the white race he will protect white women against his ruff-raff crew of reds and browns. Her utter fearlessness and trust in him, despite all his attempts to terrorize her, slowly break down the power of his hate.

The whole fabric of his badness dissolves in the light of her faith.
In the end he rides off alone across the desert to begin life anew, friendless except for the memories of the little girl with whom he had just parted, probably forever.

The part of the girl is exquisitely filled by Bessie Love, and Louise Glauk makes of the dance hall siren a revelation in remarkable feminine transformations.

At the Pastime theater, today and tomorrow.

ICE CREAM COUPON
SCHEME BIG SUCCESS

The ice cream coupon scheme of the Albuquerque Creamery, where a coupon was found in every pound package of Sunshine Butter purchased last Saturday, proved a big success.
Holders of coupons were told to get a dish of ice cream or an ice cream soda at either of the But drug stores, good only on Saturday and Sunday, and coupons commenced rolling into the two stores as early as 8 o'clock Saturday morning. The coupons were checked up yesterday by Manager Sweeney, of the Creamery, and Frank Butt, of the drug stores. It was found that 148 coupons were deposited at the But store in the Hotel Combs building, and 188 at the store corner of Fourth street and Central avenue.
Every one enjoyed his or her dish of ice cream or ice cream soda, besides no complaints have been heard as to the quality of butter served in the coupon packages.

BUSY AS BEES AT
STRONG'S BOOK STORE

Every clerk at the Strong book store, including the proprietors, "keep a moving" these days, because everything in the store, not sold in the next ten days, must be moved to and shelved or tumbled at the new store quarters, 315 West Central avenue, by July 1. Carpenters, painters and decorators are placing the new store room in an excellent condition, and when completed and "Strong's Book Store" properly installed, Mr. and Mrs.
Strong will have one of the nicest and most complete book stores to be found anywhere in the southwest. A number of office supplies, books and other articles, kept in a first-class book store, are marked down in prices, and these are being picked up readily by bargain hunters. It is the intention to reduce the stock of certain goods and it would be wise, Mr. Office Man, to get your supplies while the getting is good.
